Announcements

The Interior Journal is authorized to announce the following candidates subject to the Democratic Primary, August 5, 1916:
FOR CONGRESS
CHARLES F. MONTGOMERY
HARVEY HELM

The primary election will be held Saturday next. Very little interest appears to be manifested in it generally and a light vote will probably be polled by both parties. Much more hinges upon the final election in November, than who is nominated in August. It behooves each and every candidate and his friends to remember this, and to so conduct himself and his efforts that no bitterness shall remain after the primary and so that the winner, whoever he may be, will have a clear and unsullied title to his office. Unfair tactics, corruption or other such reprehensible methods should be conspicuous by their absence next Saturday. This is a fight between democrats inside the party and the I. J. hopes that each and every democrat who enters the primary will go into it and come out of it ready and willing to support the nominee. That is the I. J.'s position and should be the position of all good and loyal democrats.

The time draws nearer for the great Stanford Fair. The K. P. boys made a fine show at Harrodsburg last week, and will do just as well and probably better at Danville this week. They are boosting and working loyally for a great fair and unless all signs fail, it is a sure thing.

Candidate Hughes will open the republican campaign in Kentucky at Lexington Sept. 4th. National Committeeman A. T. Hert must be some cheese with the fellows on the main line and landing Hughes in this state as an opener is some feather in his cap. What's the use though? Kentucky is safe for Woodrow Wilson.

MORELAND.

Without any doubt the pie and ice cream supper that was held at the public and graded school building last Friday evening was one of the greatest successes ever realized at this place. The house was crowded and in spite of the excessive heat good order and a good sociable time was enjoyed. Twenty-one pies were auctioned off by the professor and a liberal sum was realized. New shades for the windows and a new coat of paint for the black boards have already been bought. Other improvements will be made. The faculty desires to express their thanks to all who helped to make the entertainment a success. The school is progressing splendidly with a large attendance.

Miss Laura Johnson, of Science Hill, who has been the primary teacher in the Kings Mountain school for a number of years, stopped over here on her way home from Liberty where she had been attending the institute and gave our school a very pleasant call. The school is always glad to welcome visitors because their presence gives us encouragement. Miss Johnson will teach at Science Hill this year.

Mr. Sam Bishop, Sr., sold to Eads & Yowell, this week 28 head of hogs, averaging 167 pounds, at 8 3-4 cents. Theo. Jones sold to the same parties 30 head, averaging 168 pounds, at same price.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Coffey, of Danville, were here on business last Saturday.

Miss Elizabeth Webb, of Perryville, has been the attractive guest of Miss Minnie Pruitt for several days.

It seems that everyone went out for a good time Sunday as 109 tickets were sold that morning to Cincinnati.

B. Hutchins little 10 year old girl, Elsie Hutchins and when about a hundred yards from the base the backing strap gave way and the horse became frightened and started to kicking, the buggy lodging against a telephone post. The preacher was thrown out, his right shoulder striking the ground, bruising and considerably shaking him up but not otherwise hurting him. At the time the vehicle came in contact with the pole the alarmed animal began to run, turning over the buggy. Little Miss Hutchins was caught beneath the overturned buggy but made a lucky escape with several bruises and other slight injuries.
